

To: Peterson, Cynthia[Peterson.Cynthia@epa.gov]
Cc: Kiefer, Linda[Kiefer.Linda@epa.gov]; Wardell, Christopher[Wardell.Christopher@epa.gov]; Faulk, Libby[Faulk.Libby@epa.gov]
From: Wharton, Steve
Sent: Wed 11/4/2015 12:25:53 AM
Subject: FW: Cal Gulch Docs for tour
Cal Gulch Reuse Benefit Study.pdf
General Cal Gulch FS.pdf
timeline-and-ous-deletion-status-letter-size-11-3-2015.pdf

Cynthia – The Reuse Benefit Study may be one of the most valuable references we can provide to the tour participants. Of the four sites on the tour, the California Gulch site comes closest to approximating the scale and complexity of the Upper Animas site and reflects many of the same values of concern (e.g., tourism, fishing and recreation).

Steve

From: Wardell, Christopher
Sent: Tuesday, November 03, 2015 4:58 PM
To: Ketellapper, Victor
Cc: Faulk, Libby; Kiefer, Linda; Wharton, Steve
Subject: Cal Gulch Docs for tour

Hi Victor here are the cal gulch documents for the tour and the link to the cal gulch metal to medals video and revitalization video. Let me know if you have any questions/concerns. Thanks

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?t=5&v=P6kRzkyxISM> (metals to medals)

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=\_gXnbCxizhU (revitalization video)

Chris Wardell

USEPA Region 8

Public Affairs and Community Involvement

Work: 303-312-6062

Cell: 303-552-7109

wardell.christopher@epa.gov